GOSPEL MEDITATION

“The magi come with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.”

-Matthew 2:1-12

Have you ever wondered why the magi had gold, frankincense, and myrrh? Matthew’s Gospel tells us, “Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.” (Matthew 2.11). Why are these things their “treasures”? One possible answer is they were magicians and astrologers, and these three items were the tools of their questionable trade. In offering them to Christ, they demonstrate that they will cease using such items to predict or control life. They place this baby king, the God of Israel, at the center of their lives and not their own devices of control, manipulation and prediction.

Isn’t that what we need to do, too? Consider, for example, the magical power of money, symbolized by the magi’s gold. Seemingly whatever we ask of money, it does. It wields a god-like power over the world. It can predict the future by guaranteeing better outcomes for us—which is why it is such a tempting alternative to trusting in God. The problem is such absolute trust in money enslaves us to the economic forces that make money so powerful, in paying homage to Jesus with “gold”(i.e., tithing), we participate in his authority over (and therefore freedom from) the magical sway of money.

What things in your life do you use to predict or control your future? What in your life seems to give you power over the world? Those are your treasures. Are you tired of feeling enslaved to them? Find a way to open them and give them to Christ, and you will be freer.

— Father John Muir

New Year Prayer 2025

Most Holy and Blessed Trinity, receive our humble petitions for this New Year. We offer our prayers for the pope and for those who shepherd Your Church. Bestow your grace upon all the faithful. Illuminate the paths of those who have not yet found you. Touch the hearts of those who have strayed, that they might find their way back to your loving embrace.

Grant our world prosperity, and let peace reign among all peoples. We ask for your abundant blessings to be upon those dear to us – family, friends, and companions – and yes, even upon those who may stand against us. Extend your loving hand to those suffering in poverty or illness. Remember in Your mercy the souls of our departed who left us this past year, and be gentle with those who will be called to stand before you in the year to come.

May your divine inspiration guide the beginning of all our endeavors in this New Year, and Your loving presence sustain them to completion, so that all we do might begin and end in you.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

GOD OUR FATHER, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
